04 Best B2C Product or Service

This award recognises the products and services that truly put the customer first. The gift card sector is known for its deep understanding of consumer behaviour — now's your chance to show how you've turned that insight into action.

Have you identified a genuine gap in the market? Met an emerging need? Supported consumers through financial challenges, or encouraged them to try something new via gift cards? Whether it's about convenience, connection, or community, we want to hear how your B2C gift card offering made a real difference in people's lives.

Show us how your solution not only delivered results, but made the customer the heart of the story.
